

2012 Pharmacy Research Day Rutgers University Piscataway, NJ

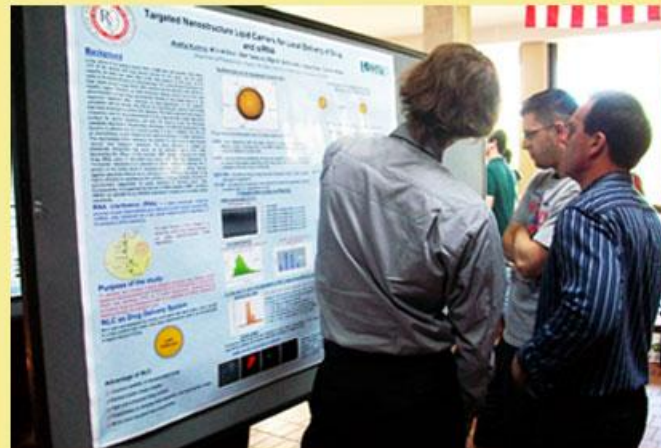

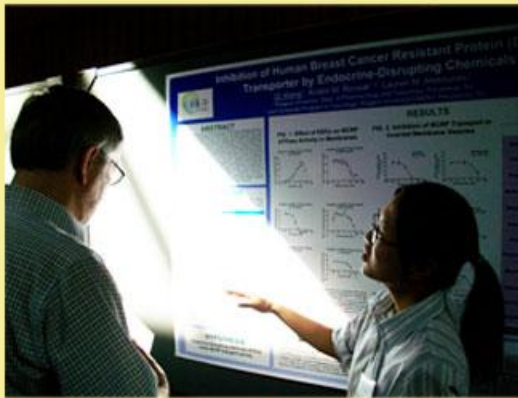

Over 40 research posters from all departments of the Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy were presented by undergraduate, PharmD, graduate and postgraduate students. The symposium was held on April 17, 2012 in the Great Hall of UMDNJ. Over 100 people attended this event.

Thanks go to all of the faculty and students at the School of Pharmacy who participated in this program and to the administrative staff and Honors Committee for the organization and development of Research Day. Our sincere appreciation for funding this program is extended to the Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy, Office of the Dean.
